

BIRDS ON THE WING.

Catseye is in Paris.
A. T. Stewart is at Saratoga.
Edwin Booth is at Long Branch.
Judge Benedict has gone abroad.
Col. Bush Hawkins has rushed abroad.
Gen. Burnside has been doing Canada.
Judge Dowling is sight-seeing in Paris.
The Hon. John McKeon is at Long Branch.
Mr. Wm. B. Astor is cooling off at Newport.
Commodore Vanderbilt remains at Saratoga.
Letta is in London, and not at Long Branch.
Barney Williams is buying pictures in Munich.
Gen. Butlerfield is giving swell dinners in Paris.
Rothschild is in London for Nissim's wedding.
Hyde, the artist, is perambulating the Catskills.
Hicks, Addison Blighards is going to the White Hills.
Gov. Hoffman is the idol of the ladies at Newport.
Charles Astor Bristed is summering at Lenox.
Miss Eliza, fat, handsome, and jolly, is at New London.
Prince Rubirde, the Mexican heir, is a lion at Cape May.
Judge Bedford has been enjoying himself at Nassau.
Nassau is in London examining her elaborate ensemble.
George Bancroft has gone for his health to a German spa.
Dixie is among the notables at Richmond Spring.
Peter Cooper is quietly enjoying himself at his country seat.
Henry Clegg finds time to fly to Long Branch now and then.
Gen. Pershing M. Wetmore is at his Long Island summer home.
Col. Harry Rockfeller returned home Monday to find his wife dead.
John H. Dodge, banker, has finished his tour of the Holy Land.
Moses H. Grinnell lives secluded at his Irvington country seat.
Gen. Grant, Thibaut is visiting at his home in Brooklyn, Conn.
Grafetta, of the Seventh Regiment band, has gone to the French.
Ex-Mayor Godfrey Gunther is located with his family in New York.
Lesley Walker is at New London on Sunday in the Columbia.
Minister Wauborn has left Paris for a brief sojourn at Baden.
Theodore Stiles is one of the permanent fixtures at Lenox.
Bank of the Governor's staff, is attentive to ladies at Newport.
Frank is busily employed at Saratoga during a long vacation.
Ludwig Willmar, of Germany, has gone for a month's sojourn in Paris.
Mrs. Abraham Lincoln is a patient at the Waukegan (Wise) Springs.
Judge Pierrepont is negotiating Texas Pacific Railroads.
Geo. W. Childs is plying between the Quaker City and Long Beach.
Leonard W. Jerome is in town, but goes to Lenox Branch in a few days.
Admiral John, Spanish Ambassador, is sailing eastward Saturday.
Major H. H. Rutherford, formerly of Sheridan's staff, is at Baden-Baden.
Ex-Maj.-Gen. Morris is nicely domiciled at the palace of the Queen of Rouen.
Judge Dick Blackwood is half way across the Atlantic in the steamer Alcorta.
Charles C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.
Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.
Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.
Geo. W. Wallach is the young sojourner learning his part for the Berlin Art Poche.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.

Hovey Murphy finds it sufficiently attractive to remain at Long Branch.

Chief Justice Chase is the guest of Senator Leavitt at his villa in New Haven.

De Noailles has arrived at Newport, and her card book is now overflowing.

Mr. Frazee, ex-minister to Switzerland, is a resident of Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Le Grand B. Cannon is escorting his three daughters on the continent of Europe.

Max Maretzki is back from Europe, and is at his new residence in the Bronx.

Gen. John C. Fremont, in Long Branch, but has not yet made his appearance.

Col. McDaniel remains at Saratoga a few days to pack groceries for a national bank.

Commissioner Douglass has left Washington, and is in Europe.

M. J. Head, the artist, has gone to Lake George to paint a picture of it on canvas.

Wise, the balloon man, has gone to Nahant to paint a series of scenes there.

Gen. W. G. Williams, like Europe, and has no idea when he will return home.

Professor Lorenz will arrive in London this week in time for Miss Nilsson's wedding.

Gen. and Mrs. Aspinwall at Tarrytown for the summer.

Mr. Lynde Thompson is in town, and hopes to pass next Sunday on the beach at Long Branch.

Absalom Fitzgerald, of the Seventh, is in town, regarding his health after Saratoga's sprees.

Frank Moore, ex-captain of the American Legion, is in Europe for a vacation.

John C. Cummins is at his new Newport cottage, and is looking well.

Pomer J. Gilmore has been rustinating at quiet and attractive St. James.

Lucas has returned from Baden-Baden, and is spending a week at the Quaker City.

Gen. Roger A. Peleg has added to the notable arrivals at White Sulphur Springs.

Theo. M. Doherty of Philadelphia is trying to see Queen Victoria in Scotland.</